1. Connect the device and computer with Android data cable.
2. Driver Installation(If you have already installed it, you can ignore this step)
   1) Double-click to run the driver installation script(This script is placed in a zip named Morefun_driver)

   2) After the driver is successfully installed, the device manager on the computer will display a port with the name MoreFun CDC.

3. Let the device enter download mode.
   1) Boot the device,during boot process, keep pressing the 1 key (note can not always press, to press repeatedly).
   2) After the device enters the download mode, the following page will appear.

4. Open the download tool and switch to the Program download page.

5. Click the Config button to select the config file.

6. Select the corresponding port which the device connect with computer.

7. Start download.